

Ludwig Quidde–Foundation

in administration of the German Foundation for Peace Research

call for nominations

The Ludwig Quidde-Foundation in administration of the German Foundation for Peace Research calls for nominations for the

Ludwig Quidde–Award

that is announced for the second time. The award commemorates the lifework of Ludwig Quidde, the German Nobel Peace Prize Laureate of 1927. It is endowed with 5,000 Euro.

The award honors achievements in peace research, i.e. a scientific life's work, or a pioneering research program or approach. It is closely connected to the life and legacy of Ludwig Quidde which is why nominations can be submitted for achievements in the following fields:

- Life and legacy of Ludwig Quidde
- International organization of peace
- International law
- Historical peace research
- Peace movement and pacifism
- Mediation and peaceful conflict resolution

National and international nominations can be submitted in German or English. Self-nominations are not permitted.

A scientific jury with scholars from different academic disciplines decides on the awarding of the Ludwig Quidde-Award. There is no right of appeal.

Deadline for submission of nominations is October 15, 2013. All nominations should be submitted to the Ludwig Quidde-Foundation either in writing or electronically: Ludwig Quidde-Foundation in administration of the German Foundation for Peace Research (DSF), Am Ledenhof 3-5, D-49074 Osnabrück
Tel.: ++49(0)541/6003542
